Brentwood Bay last year.

Hearing of the action was adourned today until May 28 fol-owing Mr. Henderson's application to amend pleadings by insertion of a clause questioning tion in setting up the parks board for the Brentwood area.

Mr. Justice Murphy, presiding, stated notices of the application for amendment would have to be served on provincial and federal attorneys-general.

'According to Mr. Henderson's contention, provincial authority to delegate control powers over any harbor foreshore to any board depends implicity on the approval by the Dominion Parment, by act of Parliament, of the provincial order-in-council establishing such a board.

Should his point be sustained the individual complaint of Mr. Stevenson might be extended to other boathouse owners who removed their foreshore structures at the request of the parks board.

The jurisdictional question has a wider implication in that the federal order in council of June 1924, granting certain rights to the provincial government is also challenged by Mr. Hender-Such action should also

Infant Mortality

ONE OBSERVATION WHICH MR. George Hoadley, former Minister of Health in the Alberta government and now chairman of the national committee on mental hygiene, made to the Local Council of Women yesterday merits a good deal more than perfunctory study. He compared the total of 60,000 young Canadians who were killed or died of wounds during the Great War of 1914-1918 with the total of 70,000 Canadian babies under one year of age who had died in a similar period between 1931

The point Mr. Hoadley sought to make was that a very large proportion of these tiny lives could have been saved as valuable producing assets if more practical attention had been paid in this country to the various phases of public health conservation and rotection. In support of his contention Mr, Hoadley observed that of the $193,000,000 spent in Canada in 1931 in fees to doctors, dentists, nurses, hospital fees and drugs, government grants to hospitals, plus health and sanitation, and industry and phil-anthropy, only $12,000,000 was spent on public health and sanitation, or only 6 per cent for prevention. This suggested to him that "as long as this short-sighted system prevails we will continue to pour out millions for curing sickness which might have been

Accepting the fact that infant mortality is the most sensitive index of the progress of a nation, Mr. Hoadley noted that in 1937, 16,675 infants under one year of age died in Canada, or 76 per 1,000 live births. proper health services the rate need not have been higher than New Zealand's rate of 30 showing that Canada needlessly lost 10,000 infant lives. Added to this is the further statement that in the last 25 years there has been no improvement in the maternal deathrate in this country. When a people are busily engaged in fighting the foe outside the gates it may be argued that practically everything else must remain subservient to the main issue. Yet the reduction of infant mortality not only is directly allied to Canada's part in the grim struggle now going on in Europe but must be recognized as an inescapable factor if this Dominion is to progress after the final gun has been fired.

Japanese Culture

FOR THE SECOND TIME IN TWO YEARS Professor Kaju Nakamura has visited Vic. toria in the interests of "Japanese culture" and to disseminate propaganda about his country's venture in China and its relationship to Occidental thought and action. He gave to this newspaper yesterday certain exssions of opinion as to the attitude of the United States toward Japan in general and the state of mind in the neighboring republic arising out of the abrogation of the 28-yearold commercial treaty last January. On the latter subject Professor Nakamura said in

The abrogation of the Commerce Pac may have been done out of spite to us but it brought no profit at all to America, nor did it add to her any dignity. It was from the first doomed to failure. We do not know how high Professor Nakamura rates the intelligence of readers of this newspaper in particular or the people of this community in general. We may say to him, however, that Canadians, especially at this juncture, are in no mood to be instructed as to how they shall regard Japan's presence in China. They are able to understand without the assistance of Oriental-Culture-Summer-College technique what the men of Nippon have done to China. Nor will they shed tears as they hear the extremely polite professor say that "cunning Chinese propaganda supported by England and America" is "burying" Japan in the "mist

Nazi Protest Over Dorothy Thompson

BUCHAREST (CP)-Dorothy Thompson, noted United States newspaperwoman and commentator of international affairs now touring Europe's neutral coun-tries, became the subject of an demonstration international incident last night when Germany protested to Ru-mania against her admission to Empress Hotel this country.

The German legation, in a written protest to the Rumanian propaganda ministry, said Miss Thompson's presence in Buchar-est could be construed as incom-patible with Rumania's neutrality, since the American news paperwoman is known for her anti-Nazi views.

The protest called her "an inciter of the people" and a "dangerous" person.

Correspondent of the New York Herald Tribune and wife of the novelist and Nobel Prize winner, Sinclair Lewis, Miss Thompson was expelled from Germany in 1935 because she had written an article criticizing Adolf Hitler in 1931, before he

Ribben" Owes Bill

OTTAWA (CP) — Shear Miller, former Ottawa shoe mer-chant, said today he was wondering what to do about a 26-year-old shoe bill owed by one J. von Ribbentrop of Berlin, Germany, formerly of Ottawa.

The present Nazi foreign minister purchased a pair of boots from Miller in 1914 when he was a wine merchant in Ottawa, and, Miller said, "Ribben," as he was then popularly known here, evidently forgot to pay for them.

CRUSADE AGAINST SLOW ACCOUNTS

"We, of the National Retail Credit Association, are at war with relation to slow accounts, and are organizing our army to defeat this enemy by encouraging membership in our organization, said Walter A. Jensen, field se-retary of the National Retail Credit Association in an address given to members of the Victoria Credit Granter's Association at-a luncheon meeting held at Spencer's yesterday.

"Since October of last year we have increased our membership by 509 in our district, and we expect a further increase of 200 by June. The National Retail Credit Association has set up courses in retail credit in many of the uni-versities and high schools of the United States and Canada, in an effort to teach the future generation of their responsibilities with regard to credit," said Mr.

"The Victoria branch of the association has taken an active part in this work and have always been eager to exchange ideas in their efforts to eliminate the enemy of slow payment."

Mr. Jensen then showed a talking picture slide film, "Credit. taking picture slide film, "Credit, the Life of Business" in which was flustrated the working of the Associated Credit Bureaus of America when a prospective customer wished to open a charge account at a large store. DEAR MISS DIX—What can we do about some relatives, who are much better off than we are, who apparently consider our house a free boarding house? Any evening from two to six people will walk in at mealtime. Often when we come home at night we will find them parked in front of our house waiting for me to come in and cook dinner for them. I have remonstrated with them about in and cook dinner for them. I have remonstrated with them about this, but they say: "Of course, we wouldn't take this liberty with you if we weren't kinfolks." I do my own housework and find the extra cooking a great burden. Besides, we can't afford it, as we have all we can do to support our own family. Many times we have to give up our plans for the evening because after our uninvited guests have had a full meal they like to sit around and talk. What must we do about it?

several broken ribs. Although the snake was "dead," its body kept moving and lashing around. When all signs of life were gone, the natives took off the skin. In the stomach they found a number of brass rings such as Congo people are fond of wearing.

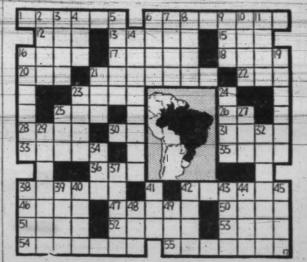

The stomach was given to a Answer: Just have enough grit to defend yourself against these grafters. Tell them that you can't afford to feed them and if they want to eat at your house you will have to charge them for it. Being kin to you does not give them the privilege of eating you out of house and home. One woman who had the same experience that you are having told me that she solved the problem by never having anything but beans. Just beans for her uninvited guests. That stopped them from coming.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX-I am a young man in my twenties and have been going with a girl for a year. I like her, but I am not the romantic type. When I kiss her I feel as though I am kissing a corpse, but it is the same with other girls. I don't enjoy kissing them. It is just like I am kissing my own sister. My girl wants to marry, but I hesitate because if she is looking for love I can't fill the What is your advice? UNCERTAIN.

Answer: Don't marry. It sounds like you were born to be a bachelor. Every wife expects to be loved and she makes it mighty unpleasant for her husband if he doesn't come across with the petting.

Atlas Tomorrow

Music lovers have a treat in store for them at the Atlas Theatre tomorrow, where "Balalaika," the new musical starring Nelson Eddy and Ilona Massey, opens. It is a brilliant production musically and dramatically and serves as an excellent vehicle with which to introduce Miss Massey, Hollywood's newest singing star. As for Eddy, it is probably his ost important picture to date. "Balalaika," based on the Lon don musical stage success of the same name by Eric Maschwitz, is a story of old Russia before, dur-ing and after the revolution. It is colorful, gay at times and in-tensely dramatic.

DOMINION THEATRE

That Pat O'Brien turns "lady killer" in earnest for his role in Walter Wanger's "Slightly Hon orable," the new film production now playing at the Dominion now playing at the Dominion Theatre. He not only beats up Phyllis Brooks and gives her a black eye, but knocks out Ruth Terry, who has the leading role opposite him, with a right hook to the jaw. O'Brien gets it all back, however, being stabbed in the arm by an unknown knifethrower and absorbing a beating from Broderick Crawford, Others who appear in this lively film story, directed by Tay Garnett, are Edward Arnold, Claire Dodd and Alan Dinehart.

CAPITOL THEATRE

Playing the greatest adventure role of his triumph-studded career, Spencer Tracy currently stars on the Capitol Theatre screen as Major Rogers, the fearless, fascinating and indomitable Indian fighter of Kenneth Rob "Northwest Passage."
